The Amalfi Coast of Italy Flotilla Cruise Optional Pre-Cruise Package – September 14-16, 2017

Two Night Stay in Naples with Amalfi Coast Tour

Stay at the Lovely Seafront Hotel Royal Continental

The Royal Continental is in the top-rated Lungomare Caracciolo area, about a quarter mile from the city's famous shopping district and main cultural area, and just a 17-minute walk to the beach.

The hotel has a stunning rooftop pool with panoramic views overlooking the Bay of Naples and Castel dell'Ovo, a beautiful restaurant and bar, free Wi-Fi, a fitness center, non-smoking rooms, and secure parking on site. Rooms are air-conditioned and spacious.

Tour the Amalfi Coast

On our 2017 flotilla cruise you sail among the islands off the Amalfi Coast. This pre-cruise option provides an 8-hour escorted tour of some of the most spectacular Amalfi Coast sites.

Ravello, Amalfi and Positano

After a delicious breakfast at the hotel, head to visit Villas Ravello and Cimbrone – two sites not to be missed for their splendiferous décor and amazing gardens. The panoramic views of Italy from Villa Cimbrone are considered the best on all of the Amalfi Coast and Coast of Cilento. Read more and watch the video on this Ravello website page to understand how magnificent these sites are.

After a lunch stop, next is Amalfi at the exit of a valley, situated like an amphitheatre among the sea and mountains. Its unique scenery includes brightly painted Cliffside houses, ancient ruins of fortresses, green palms and warm citrus tree colors, and the incredible Duomo di Amalfi. This 9th century Roman Catholic cathedral is built atop a steep flight of stairs, with an Arab-influenced exterior and relics of St. Andrew the Apostle in its crypt.

Your last stop before heading back to the hotel is fabulous Positano (shown on the front of this flier), one of the most picturesque Italian coastal resorts.
