Exciting New Experiential Sailing Programs
Designed To Level Up Your Sailing Knowledge, Skills & Confidence

CATAMARAN ENDORSEMENT 114

$2,995 Per Person

A two-day weekend course for monohull sailors who wish to move into catamaran cruising, and those who may have learned on or own a catamaran seeking more training in operating a catamaran while sailing, docking, anchoring, and picking up mooring balls.

- Saturday all day instruction underway – 9am-5pm
- Sunday instruction and practice underway – 9am-3pm, depart
- US Sailing Catamaran Endorsement written test
- Catamaran Endorsement 114 awarded when test is passed (mailed after course concludes)
- Water and lunch provided aboard Saturday and Sunday during training
- Friday and Saturday stay aboard the yacht at marina included in package
- Pre-requisites: Proof of US Sailing Bareboat Cruising Certification

Ask for weekend availability and Florida locations. Maximum number of participants is three (3). Package rate is same whether you are taking this course alone or traveling with others taking the course with you. Plan to arrive Friday late afternoon, depart Sunday after course ends. Not included: Travel costs to/from marina where boat is berthed, parking fees you may incur, beverages or food you wish to bring aboard with you, meals other than lunches aboard, accommodations ashore if you prefer to stay at hotel/resort instead of aboard Friday and Saturday night. ASA 101/103/104 grads are welcome to take this course with certification proof, sailing resume submitted for approval, and pre-course online test (extra fee for online test). Bring your logbook for instructor to endorse.
